NOTIFICATIONS.

Fort St. George, November 24, 1931.

[G.O. Mr. No. 1183, Public (General)].

No 187.—The following notification of the Government of Bengal is republished:—

The 3rd November 1931.

No. 18776 P.—Whereas the magic lantern slides below appear to the Governor in Council to contain matter the publication of which is punishable under section 124-A of the Indian Penal Code, inasmuch as the said slides bring or attempt to bring into hatred or contempt and excite disaffection towards the Government established by law in British India:

Now, therefore, in exercise of the power conferred by section 99-A of the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1898 (Act V of 1898), the Governor in Council hereby declares to be forfeited to His Majesty every copy of the said lantern slides, namely:—

(1) A slide with entry in Bengali as follows:—"Ruling and exploitation are the work of the same Government".

(2) A slide with entry in Bengali as follows:—"There is no salt-tax in any other country in the world. It exists in unfortunate India only".

(3) A slide with entries in Bengali as follows:—"It is surprising that the British rulers cannot understand that it is they themselves who are responsible for the loss of population caused by scarcity of rain. That people are living in poverty and suffering, that hundreds of thousands die of famine is because that it is the rulers themselves who are robbing India of her wealth. When famine breaks out, to save them proportionate taxation is imposed on another set of famished men".

(4) A slide with the entries in Bengali as follows:—"There are still leaves on the trees and the females have not yet become prostitutes. It must hence be said that there is no famine in the locality—Test".

(5) A slide with entries in Bengali is as follows :—"History of India—Hall. Had such hats been done and Indian cloths stopped by duties from being taken to the markets of England, the wheels of machinery at Manchester and Paisley would not have revolved in spite of the discovery of steam. It is by the sacrifice of Indian industry that the cotton industry in England has grown up. Had India been an independent country then she would have retaliated and prevented English-made cloths being brought to India by imposing taxes on them".

(6) A slide entitled "Destruction of cloth industry in India" containing the figure of a boy tied to a tree and a sepoy whipping the boy. The words "East India Company" are written on the sharpush of the belt worn by the sepoy. Another man has been kept in custody of another sepoy and a woman is crying at some distance—Bolt's Consideration.

(7) A slide headed "Bolt's Consideration" containing the figure of a woman being assaulted by a sepoy. Another person standing at a distance —Bolt's Consideration.

(8) A slide shewing five persons (weavers) standing at a distance, two of whom carrying dao (weapons) and blood coming out of their fingers, which have been cut off.

(9) A slide with entries in Bengali as follows :—"As once Rome had to leave Britain, so, if the English have to leave India suddenly now, they will leave behind a country devoid of education, health and riches.—Sir Daniel Hamilton".

(10) A slide with the entries in Bengali as follows :—"Machinery of exploiting India in the name of administration" and containing a figure of an elephant striking its trunk into the map of India. On the trunk it is written in Bengali "Exploitation and repression", and below the slide is written "Bureaucracy" and on the base of the elephant is written "The English".

(11) A slide with the entry in Bengali as follows :—"Wanted revolution".

(12) A slide containing the figure of three circles shewing the gradual increase of the red circle with the entry in English "In 1858 the East India Company changed its cloak and became the British Government in India but the heart remained the same".

(13) A slide containing the figure of Subhash Bose with some men with entry in English "Lathi charge on Subhash on Independence Day".

(14) A slide with entris in English as follows :—"Why he asked—should you give the Indians the advantage of knowledge; you would only thereby give the means of effecting your own injustice, you have ransacked their country, you have despoiled its people, you have murdered their princes and of course for your own protection, you must keep them deluded, deceived and ignorant—said by Sir Thomas Stratten on 21st March in 1811 in the House of Commons".

(15) A slide with entries in English as follows :—"When any people or country is subjected by a stronger power, it must be taken for granted that one of the first thing the Congress will do will be to either destroy, discourage or rigidly control education in the oppressed country for knowledge and subjection cannot work hand in hand. By Agnes Smelly".
